

Flip-Flops

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Make two long ropes and two fat tubes. Flatten the tubes into thick, flat oval shapes to make the bottoms of your flip-flops.

Flatten the ropes, then pinch them in the middle to make them into "V" shapes. These will be the flip-flop's straps.

To make your first flip-flop, place the pointy "V" part of the strap at one end of the flip-flop's bottom. Next, attach the ends of the straps to the flip-flop's sides as shown.

Finally, attach the strap for your second flip-flop. You're done! Now those are some fashionable flip-flops!

Lemon Slice

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Roll two skinny ropes and four cones. Flatten the edges and tops of the cones into wedges.

Place the four wedges side by side to make a half-circle. Flatten the two ropes by pressing on them with your fingers. Next, roll three tiny balls.

Squeeze the tiny balls so they become pointed on one end, like seeds. Place one fat rope on top of the other to make the lemon rind.

Wrap the rind around the curved side of your wedges. Place the seeds on top of the wedges. Ta-dah! You just made a zesty piece of lemon.

Sand Castle

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Make a large cube and a large tube to be the castle towers. Then press out a large flat oval to be the base for your castle.

Place the towers on the base, then make lots of tiny cubes and place them around the tops of the towers. Make a short rope and a flat square with rounded edges.

Pinch up the corners of the square to make the end of a shovel. Next attach the rope as a handle. Make some tiny, flat squares to be windows and a larger flat rectangle to be the door to your castle.

Place the door and windows on the castle and make a blob to be the sand in your shovel. Super job! Are you this good at building real sand castles?

Smile

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Make two small balls and a short rope. Next make a large ball and flatten it into a circle.

To make the mouth, roll the short rope into a long, thin rope.

Place the long thin rope at one end of the circle, curving it into a smiling mouth. Flatten the two balls into oval-shaped eyes.

Place the eyes onto the circle, then smile! You've made a happy smiling PLAY-DOH face!

Paintbrush

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Roll a fat rope with one pointy end for the paint brush's stick. To make the bristles, roll a short fat rope and pinch each end into a point. Make a flat rectangle.

Attach the bristles to the stick. Wrap the flat rectangle around the handle just below the bristles.

Make a ball and then flatten it into the shape you want to make your blob of paint.

Place the paint near the bristles and Voila! You've created a PLAY-DOH masterpiece!

Soda Bottle

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Roll a fat cylinder that is slightly thinner on one end for the bottle. Roll a short rope. Roll three balls, one slightly smaller than the other two.

To shape a curve into the bottle, place two fingers above the fat end of the cylinder, then press in gently as you roll it. Stand the bottle up. Flatten the brown balls and stack them on top to make the bottle's lip. Flatten the yellow ball with your thumb and pinch the edges up to make a cap.

Squeeze the ends of the short rope to make an “S”-shape for the bottle's brand logo.

Place the logo on the bottle and you're done! You'll amaze your friends with your latest PLAY-DOH creation.

Strawberry

Level: Beginner

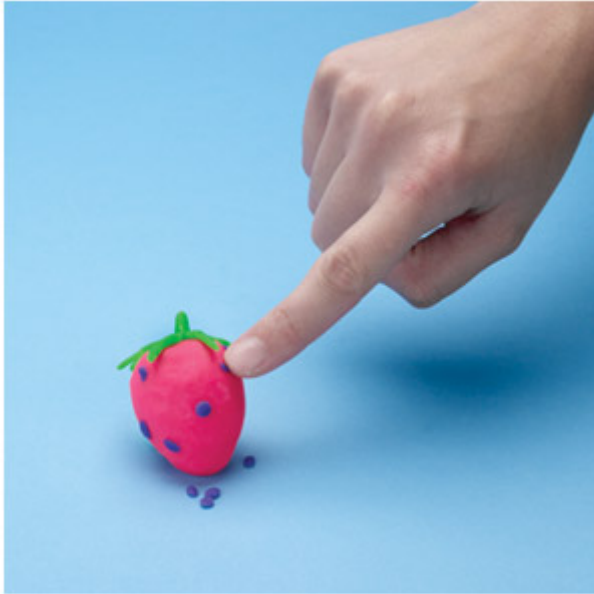

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Make a ball, shaping it so that the top is a little bit pointed. Then roll several short ropes with pointed ends.

Place your ropes pointy-side out to make a star shape. Save one rope to place in the middle of the star. This is your strawberry stem. Roll several small circles to be strawberry seeds.

Place the stem on the rounded end of your strawberry. Press the seeds flat into the sides of your strawberry.

Great job! It's as beautiful as a real strawberry! What other fruit shapes can you make?

Lipstick

Level: Beginner

Using the basic shapes key above, follow the easy step-by-step instructions below to make your PLAY-DOH creation. Keep practicing, and you'll get better at making all of the shapes. Use our color suggestions, or try your own! The less shapes you use, the more simple your creation. The more shapes you add, the more complex it becomes.

Make 2 rectangles for the case of the lipstick; one should be slightly longer than the other. Roll a cylinder for the lipstick.

Press one end of the cylinder to form an angle. Make a short skinny rope and a longer, fatter rope. Flatten the ropes into bands.

Place the flat end of the lipstick onto the longer half of the case. Wrap the fatter band around the base of the lipstick. Wrap the thinner rope around the shorter half of the case.

Excellent job! Your new PLAY-DOH lipstick creation is just fabulous!
